The Routledge International Handbook of Intercultural Arts Research

Edited by Pamela Burnard, University of Cambridge, UK, Elizabeth Mackinlay, University of Queensland, Australia. and Kimberly Powell, Pennsylvania State University, USA.

Series: Routledge International Handbooks of Education

For artists, scholars, researchers, educators and students of arts theory interested in culture and the arts, a proper understanding of the questions surrounding 'interculturality' and the arts requires a full understanding of the creative, methodological and interconnected possibilities of theory, practice and research. This handbook provides concise and comprehensive reviews and overviews of the convergences and divergences of intercultural arts practice and theory, offering a consolidation of the breadth of scholarship, practices and the contemporary research methodologies, methods and multi-disciplinary analyses that are emerging within this new field.
